

Sequence:SIMPLE AND ADVANCED

Scenario Used:

1. User logs into the Library System.
2. User checks the availability of a book.
3. System verifies the book's availability status.
4. System displays the book availability status to the User.
5. If the book is available, User requests the book.
6. System processes the book request and updates the book's status.
7. System provides the book to the User.
8. User returns the book after usage.
9. System updates the book status to reflect the return.
10. System notifies the Librarian of the book return.
11. Librarian confirms the book return in the system.
12. User logs out of the system.

